

Lab activities and events:

English lab provides opportunities for the students to practice and fine tune their language skills. Both the English lab workbook and the language software provided by K-VAN Solutions integrate the following activities that are aimed at enriching English language fluency of the learners. While some activities are practiced in ELCS labs, the other activities are meant for AECS lab where students are trained in activities that are very practical in nature in terms of preparing students for life after academics.

Lab activities and events:

English lab provides opportunities for the students to practice and fine tune their language skills. Both the English lab workbook and the language software provided by K-VAN Solutions integrate the following activities that are aimed at enriching English language fluency of the learners. While some activities are practiced in ELCS labs, the other activities are meant for AECS lab where students are trained in activities that are very practical in nature in terms of preparing students for life after academics.

Lab Activities and Events:

1. Ice-breaking activity: Ice-breakers are speaking activities used with a new class in order to give the learners an opportunity to meet each other. In order to complete an ice-breaker task learners must talk to each other. These allow the new comers to talk to each other and know each other well. For the teachers such ice breakers give an opportunity to identify the learners and form an initial assessment of them when they start talking about themselves. This also allows the learners to work in teams and participate in collaborative learning. As the learners involve in team work and interact personally with each other, they also establish personal bonding essential for successful learning. Some of the ice-breaking activities include Just One Lie, Unique and Shared etc.

2. JAM session: 'Just a Minute' is an impromptu speech test conducted with the time limit of one minute. The students are trained to speak coherently and meaningfully on a given topic within a span of one minute. More than a test of knowledge, JAM can be seen as a test of wit and presence of mind. Many recruitment drives use this test to assess a candidate's language skills. The teacher encourages the students to participate in JAM sessions in order to improve their language fluency and accuracy. Before the session the teacher prepares a list of topics which are then randomly given to each student to speak. The students are advised not to hesitate when they speak. They are also told not to repeat and deviate from the topic.

Essay writing on “Impact of Social Media on the Youth “for I & II B.Tech Students.

22.10.2016

Outcome of event

Writing encourages and enhances critical thinking, creative thinking and helps in organizing thoughts and improve communication skills. Writing also improves develop professional arguments about a topic and articulate opinions.

The Department of English, CMRCET, conducted an Essay Writing competition for the first and the second year students of engineering on October 22, 2016. The topic for the event was “Impact of Social Media on the youth.” Around 100 students participated in the event. All the students were given hour duration to write their essays. They venue for the event was the English lab in the block one of the college. The faculty and the student volunteers from the college helped the event becoming successful. The faculty announced the following as the winners of the competition.

4.Role Play: Role Play is any speaking activity where one either puts oneself into somebody else's shoes or one may put oneself in an imaginary situation. Thus the learners can themselves to be the president or the prime minister of a country. They then can enact the role using appropriate language. Such activities make learning enjoyable and interesting. Enacting imaginary situations allow the students to practice language needed for such situations. Such situations as checking in at hotel, requesting for directions help the learners to understand the practical nature of language. Students who find participating in conversations and dialogues uncomfortable can use role play as a means to express themselves.

5. Giving Directions: This is another practical activity that helps the learner to deal with various situations in the real world. Here the learner is taught how to ask for directions and give directions to another in English. The teacher divides the students into pairs and gives some hypothetical situations. The students then are asked to ask for directions, followed by answers.

7. Group discussions: Group Discussions have become a part of recruitment processes where the representatives of the recruiting organization observes the oral skills and other inter-personal skills of the participants before short listing them for the next round. CMRCET has an exclusive room with round tables for group discussions. The students are given various topics for the discussions. Their performance is observed by the teacher and a feedback is given. The students are told about the importance of taking initiative in a group discussion. They are also explained about the importance of listening to others so that they can intervene at the right time. The language software allows the student to observe the videos of sample discussions and improve their performances.

27th January 2017

Conducted by
DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH
Organised by
Senior Students & Faculty
CMR College of Engineering & Technology

The Department of English conducted a literary quiz on 27th January, 2017, for the first, the second and the third year students of Engineering at CMRCET. The students were divided into teams and were explained about the rules of the quiz. The students earlier were told about the topics in which the quiz might test them. As a result the students came prepared to the event. The faculty quizzed the students about famous books and their authors, famous quotations from books, pennames of well known writers. The students' response was heartening to the organizers. Once again the organizers were helped by the volunteers from the senior classes. The following teams were declared winners.

Outcome of the event

A quiz is a type of game or mind-sport, where the players – as individuals or teams – make an attempt to answer questions accurately. In the educational context, a quiz also serves the purpose of a brief assessment to gauge the skills, abilities, and knowledge of students.

10.Resume writing: Preparing one's resume is one of the most important of any student's transition from college to career. While understanding the structure of resume is important, what goes into making a good resume is even more important. In the lab the students are taught how to structure their resume in terms of their career objective, profile, achievements and skills. They are also taught to keep their resume brief. Most importantly the students are encouraged to participate in various cultural and technical events which find their way into their resume. It is because mere academic qualifications will not fetch them a job.

11. Technical Report writing: Careers in industry or for that matter any career calls for report writing skills. Keeping in view of the requirements of both the industry and the students, the language lab included report writing in its syllabus. In the lab the students are introduced to the basic purpose of a report: the spoken or written account of something that one has observed, heard, seen, or studied. The students are introduced to the three formal aspects of a report: preliminaries, main part and the supplementaries. The preliminaries include title page, terms of reference, contents, list of tables or diagrams, acknowledgements and summary. The main part includes the introduction, methodology, results, discussion and conclusions or recommendations. The supplementary includes the references, appendices and glossary.

Power point presentations: PPTs have become a part of a professional's life. Irrespective of one's profession, each one of us use PPT as tool of presentations. Thus one should know how to use such modern tools. In the language lab PPT are used to present one's ideas and thoughts to the audience. They supplement one's efforts to convey one's ideas in the form of tables, illustrations. But the students are cautioned not overuse them as complete dependence on them can defeat the very purpose of using them
