6. Elocution on: Women's Safety

Date: 04.08.2016

Women Safety:-

Ms. Saideep

It is very true that women in India are given a place of goddess Lakshmi in the Indian society however we also cannot ignore the negative aspect of women position in India. Everyday and every minute some women of all walks of life (a mother, a sister, a wife, young girls and girl baby children) are getting harassed, molested, assaulted, and violated at various places all over the country. Areas like streets, public spaces, public transport, etc have been the territory of women hunters. Girl students studying in the schools or colleges have to shield themselves through books or bags or they have to wear clothes which can cover them completely. In some cases a girl child is sold by her parents just to earn some money. Girls generally face acid attacks on the streets and kidnapping for the sex purpose

WOMEN'S SAFETY

Women Safety in India is a big concern which has been a most important topic regarding women safety. We have provided below various essay on safety of women in India in order to help students.

As we all know that India is a most famous country all over the world for its great tradition and culture where women are given most respected place in the society from the ancient time. In India women are found working in all fields like aeronautics, space, politics, banks, schools, sports, businesses, army, police, and many more. Safety of women matters a lot whether at home, outside the home or working place. Lately safety in India has become a doubtful topic. According to the statistics of National Crime Records Bureau, highest rate of crime against women was recorded in Chennai in 2000. Chennai is a capital of southern state of Tamilnadu with high rates of crimes against women. However it was seen in the crime rate...

The above event was organized by the Student Counseling Centre and the Women's Protection Cell with an aim to make the students aware of the ways the women in their families and women in general can be protected and be safe.

11. Domestic Violence: Seminar

Date: 03.11.2016

Violence against women is historical and pervasive irrespective of nation in which women live. But the institution of marriage brings special risks for women since, as statistics prove, they are more prone to acts of violence and abuse. A recent video showing the daughter-in law of a retired High Court judge being attacked and beaten up by her husband his family shows how pervasive is domestic violence despite the numerous laws enacted to protect women from domestic violence. In fact the cases of domestic violence have increased over the years. In India women are more vulnerable to violence as they tend to live along with her husband's parents. According to National Family Health Survey-3) over 1/3 of women between ages 15-49 have experienced physical violence and one women in ten has faced sexual violence. Such acts of violence prevent women from exercising their rights to freedom and for self-expression.

CMRCET conducted a one day seminar on domestic violence to bring awareness among its students and faculty. A senior faculty Prof. S. Fatima Mary addressed the students and faculty and explained about the evils of domestic violence and the protective measures which existed in the form of Criminal Procedure code. She also explained about the importance of developing awareness about one's rights before women enter into a relationship in the form of marriage so that one is better prepared to face the consequences of a bad marriage.

This event was organized by the Student Counseling Centre and the Women's Protection Cell with an aim to bring awareness to the evils of domestic violence and the protective measures which existed in the form of Criminal Procedure code.

16. Challenges for women in the society – A

Workshop

Date: 27.01.2017

Every society has its own challenges for women irrespective of its stage of economic development. But the cultural and social foundations of a society will have profound impact on the lives of its women. In a liberal and progressive society which has evolved over the years, for instance New Zealand which ranks among the top countries in gender equality, women have equal opportunities along with men and are secure from violence to a great extent. But the same cannot be said about developing societies with issues of inequality and violence. Thus women in India face some unique challenges because of its cultural and social structure which is predominantly patriarchal. As a consequence they are vulnerable to violence and prejudice. CMRCET conducted a workshop for the girl students and lady faculty of the college to create awareness among them. It invited very senior faculty Prof S Fatima Mary of the college to speak on the given topic to sensitize the students about the challenges that a society can pose for students.

This event was organized by the Student Counseling Centre and the Women Empowerment Committee with an aim to equip the women in the college with an awareness of the challenges that they have to face in the society.

20. Women's Day celebration: Role of Women in the Society

Date: 08.03.2017

William Golding, the Novelist, Playwright and Poet said, "I think women are foolish to pretend they are equal to men. They are far superior and always have been."

This proved right today when CMR College of Engineering & Technology celebrated International Women's Day with a lot of fervor and talent display. The Chief Guest for the Day was Dr. Uma Aysola, who is associated with CSR and health care management. Speaking to the audience who comprised of Women faculty and girl students, she said that Life is all about making choices and feeling responsible. And in the Indian patriarchal society, a woman getting a chance to make a choice is very rare. And if she does get it, it is all the more difficult because she needs to stand by her decisions of pursuing a career and maintaining a family in a male dominated world. The multi tasking that she does shows on her health and her environment. Dr. Uma said, "Don't sink, and swim."

The other speakers at the event were, Dr. N. Satyanarayana, Director of Academics, Major Dr. V.A. Narayana, Principal, Dr. M. Sudhakar, Dean Planning and Development and Prof. S. Fatima Mary, Head, Women's Protection Cell, CMRCET.

This event was organized by the Student Counseling Centre and the Women Empowerment Committee with an aim to make the women aware that Life is all about making choices and feeling responsible.

Women Safety:-

Mrs. Sakdeep

It is very true that women in India are given a place of goddess Lakshmi in the Indian society however we also cannot ignore the negative aspect of women position in India. Everyday and every minute some women of all walks of life (a mother, a sister, a wife, young girls and girl baby children) are getting harassed, molested, assaulted, and violated at various places all over the country. Areas like streets, public spaces, public transport, etc have been the territory of women hunters. Girl students studying in the schools or colleges have to shield themselves through books or bags or they have to wear clothes which can cover them completely. In some cases a girl child is sold by her parents just to earn some money. Girls generally face acid attacks on the streets and kidnapping for the sex purpose.

WOMEN'S SAFETY

Women safety in India is a big concern which has been a most important topic regarding women safety. We have provided below various essay on safety of women in India in order to help students.

Violence against women is historical and pervasive irrespective of nation in which women live. But the institution of marriage brings special risks for women since, as statistics prove, they are more prone to acts of violence and abuse. A recent video showing the daughter-in law of a retired High Court judge being attacked and beaten up by her husband his family shows how pervasive is domestic violence despite the numerous laws enacted to protect women from domestic violence. In fact the cases of domestic violence have increased over the years. In India women are more vulnerable to violence as they tend to live along with her husband's parents. According to National Family Health Survey-3) over 1/3 of women between ages 15-49 have experienced physical violence and one women in ten has faced sexual violence. Such acts of violence prevent women from exercising their rights to freedom and for self-expression.

Every society has its own challenges for women irrespective of its stage of economic development. But the cultural and social foundations of a society will have profound impact on the lives of its women. In a liberal and progressive society which has evolved over the years, for instance New Zealand which ranks among the top countries in gender equality, women have equal opportunities along with men and are secure from violence to a great extent. But the same cannot be said about developing societies with issues of inequality and violence. Thus women in India face some unique challenges because of its cultural and social structure which is predominantly patriarchal. As a consequence they are vulnerable to violence and prejudice. CMRCET conducted a workshop for the girl students and lady faculty of the college to create awareness among them. It invited very senior faculty Prof S Fatima Mary of the college to speak on the given topic to sensitize the students about the challenges that a society can pose for students.
